

Job specification

Her Majesty's Inspector (HMI), Education

Grade: HMI

Section 1: Job description

Context

Ofsted is the Office for Standards in Education, Children's Services and Skills. We inspect and regulate services that care for children and young people, and services providing education and skills for learners of all ages. Every week, we carry out hundreds of inspections and regulatory visits throughout England and publish the results online. We also report on standards across the country and are accountable directly to Parliament. Ofsted's inspections are independent and impartial.

HMI, Education roles will be filled by experienced professionals with the highest levels of skill needed to observe and report objectively on standards and effectiveness, with the capacity to analyse and make sound judgements on the basis of evidence gathered during inspection activity.

Overall purpose

Reporting to a Senior HMI, all HMI, Education are accountable for leading high impact inspection of education in a variety of settings, developing a critical understanding of each provider within a specified caseload, informed by incisive, accurate data analysis.

Key accountabilities

The key accountabilities of the role are outlined below. However, this is an overview of the role and is not exhaustive. Ofsted reserves the right to assign other duties commensurate with the grade as required.

- Undertaking the lead and team inspector role on the inspection of a variety of education providers, including maintained schools and academies, initial teacher education, children's centres and nursery chains where appropriate.
 - Undertaking the lead and team inspector role on the inspection of non-affiliated independent schools including independent schools for pupils with special needs and the quality assurance of the work of the Independent Schools Inspectorate in the schools affiliated to the Independent Schools Council.

- Undertaking the lead and team inspector role on surveys and other additional inspection activity including targeted inspections.
 - Ensuring that all judgements are rooted in firm evidence and are defensible against challenge; being a role model for Ofsted's values, acting at all times in the interest of pupils, not those of schools and providers, or self.
 - Providing information and expertise, contributing to routine analysis of inspection evidence and grade profiles and assisting Senior HMI to consider the issues presented.
 - Monitoring schools causing concern, providing reports and updates to Senior HMI, Regional Directors and HMCI as required.
 - Undertaking the role of Link HMI for a group of contracted inspectors. Acting as a professional mentor to these inspectors, monitoring the quality of their inspection practice and contributing to their continuous professional development as part of a high quality inspection workforce.
 - Playing an active role in the development of regional and national networks for HMI and Ofsted Inspectors to ensure a regular and effective flow of information across and between the national inspection workforce for schools.
 - Reporting local concerns about individual schools, colleges and other providers, escalating issues to Senior HMI and Regional Directors, signalling when improvement is not rapid enough ensuring that action is taken and suggesting recommendations where governance is weak.
 - Preparing and delivering best practice workshops and seminars to a range of audiences on aspects of practice, leadership, management and governance for authorities and providers, as agreed with the Regional Director.
 - Providing specialist expertise to colleagues in other inspection remits.
 - Participating in monitoring standards in subjects and aspects of the curriculum from the Early Years Foundation Stage to 16-19 education.
 - Leading or contributing to the development of projects.
 - Contributing to national reviews or surveys.
 - Undertaking quality assurance, report moderation responsibilities and complaint investigations.
 - Undertaking briefings for HMCI, regional directors, the National Director, Education and Ministers and contributing to the evaluation of government initiatives and strategies.

- Contributing inspection-based advice to HMCI and to government; writing and making contributions to reports, including HMCI's Annual Report and publications, regional reports and undertaking dissemination on a wide range of Education topics.
- For Early years, advising on decisions with respect to complex Compliance, Investigation and Enforcement (CIE) cases, tribunals and enforcement activity.
- Representing Ofsted locally, regionally and nationally as required.
- Ensuring the safeguarding of children and students is paramount and at all times leading by example. Demonstrating and embedding Ofsted's core values of putting children and students first, upholding our independence, and exhibiting accountability and transparency in all we do.

At all times, the post holder will be expected to operate in accordance with Ofsted's policies and procedures.

Additional requirements of the role

The role is home-based and will require significant travel including overnight stays, evening and occasional weekend working.

HMI are required to work flexibly to meet the needs of the business and the availability of providers; this may include some evening or weekend work to support improvement, for example to meet with providers, or contracted inspectors, in the evening or during the weekend.

HMI will also have the opportunity to hold a temporary National Lead responsibility to be an expert in a specialist area; this is additional to the core job role of HMI and attracts an enhanced responsibility allowance alongside the total salary package. All individuals who are fully trained and performing to a good standard will be eligible to apply for this extra responsibility.

Ofsted have identified this role as one which will require an enhanced criminal record check via the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). This role will bring you into direct contact with children or vulnerable adults and give you access to material or sensitive information about children or vulnerable adults.

Safer recruitment

Our commitment

We put children and learners' wellbeing at the heart of everything that we do and, therefore, do all that we can to ensure those who work for us share our commitment. This is reflected in our rigorous recruitment processes and pre-employment checks.

We select the best candidates through good, thorough recruitment practice, ensuring equality of opportunity, and deterring, or rejecting, those who may not be suitable to work for Ofsted.

All roles require the following

- Your identity must be confirmed by sight of original official documents such as a Birth Certificate and photo identification such as a Passport.
- Original documents relating to all professional qualifications required to fulfil the post must be supplied.
- Full employment and education history since leaving secondary education must be provided. All gaps in employment and education history will be scrutinised by the selection panel to ensure there are no causes for concern.
- We will request a minimum of two references covering at least the last three years. The identity of all referees will be verified and they will be asked to comment on your suitability for the role you are applying for.
- We will consult any relevant records we hold which may provide additional information on your suitability.
